

Did You Know That Telemental Health Services Are Available?

Are you worried about keeping your appointments with your providers during the COVID-19 outbreak?

Things are changing everyday and doctors and officials are telling us to stay home and stay away from people.

This can be a stressful time. If you need to keep appointments with your providers and don't know how, you may be able to use Telemental Health.

Telemental health is covered by Medicaid. It lets you:

- Talk to your provider on-line or on your phone.
- Keep appointments when you can't be around a lot of people. Keeping your appointments helps you have successful treatment.

If you want to use Telemental Health:

- Call your provider to see if they offer Telemental Health.
- If you are a new member, call the Member Access & Crisis Line at 1-855-202-0973 TDD/TTY: 711. They can help you find a provider that offers these services.
- You may also visit www.optumidaho.com and click on "Find a Provider." This will take you to a provider search page. Type in "Telemental Health Capability" and your city and state. This will give you a list of providers who offer Telemental Health.

Once you find a provider who offers Telemental Health you may call them to set up an appointment.

Each provider will use their own technology and will tell you what you need to do so you can use their system.

They will tell you about:

- How and when the sessions will happen
- How they keep records of the sessions
- How to schedule appointments
- Privacy and security
- Potential risks
- Confidentiality
- And any information you will need to know
